Unity Lodge Trestleboard Volume 2 Number 6

Greetings from the East

Thanks to Bro. Eric Ferdinandwalters and Wor. Dan Beagles for organizing the Honored Ladies Tea & Brunch. It is our hope that all our honored ladies know just how much we appreciate their support over the years. Ladies, it is now your turn to ask what the Lodge can do for you. Please call on us for favors. The brethren are eager to assist.

Congratulations to Unity Lodge's newly initiated Entered Apprentice Masons, Brother Armondo Leza and Brother William Fiskewold.

Congratulations also to Brother Ben Terry who has been passed to the degree of Fellowcraft. We look forward to the promising Masonic careers that are to come for these gentlemen.

In an effort to explain the many new faces at our dinners and degrees, we have been expanding. Our Lodge neighbors are consistently becoming our Lodge brothers, as more good men approach our halls to inquire about our mysteries and join in our assemblies. The officers of Unity Lodge have been answering the frequent knocks at the door, and our membership continues to increase.

The dedicated members of the Temple Board, and our supportive Building Manager, have been hard at work planning the building's new look. If you haven't voted already, votes are being tallied in an effort to select the best exterior building color. There are also plans to modernize the Building Manager's office. The improved appearance of our building serves the whole community, as it stands out as an emblem of the Lodge's success.

We look forward to the favorable weather in June as picnic season approaches. The first of many Lodge picnics will be held on June 26 at Lake Jennings Park. Also in June, we plan to raise Brother John Duel to the sublime degree of Master Mason. Please reference the enclosed calendar for event times, as your attendance is requested.

From the West

My Brother Entered Apprentices, now that you have been in the northeast corner and understand you are tied to others by an indissoluble chain, a chain built by time and effort, you should endeavor to build that chain with your lodge brothers as soon as possible. Brotherly Love is a sincere affection that grows with time spent together at the lodge. In jest we say to you that the north east corner of the lodge is the kitchen or that area known as the dining room. Our Past Masters, who cook for us, have been known to give the best wisdom and guidance while working together with Entered Apprentices in the kitchen. But you won't gain that benefit unless you step up and get to know them. We truly believe that it is the internal and not the external qualities which make a Mason. The dignity of our ceremonies sometimes require certain attire to be worn and you are required to then wear appropriate clothing, however most other times your regular attendance is more important than anything you might be wearing. As you get to know our traditions you will be able to distinguish when our ceremonies require certain clothes. You said you sought light. You knocked at the door of our lodge to see what wisdom we had. The door has been opened and we are waiting for you to walk through the door more often. Both wisdom and Brotherly Love gain in strength when we come together at the lodge. You have to work for it though, it does take effort to consider Your lodge important enough to want to know what your Brothers are doing on any given Monday and Wednesday nights. You have to actively seek knowledge and that requires an effort on your part, however with your regular attendance others will gain from you as you gain from them. The justice of the laws of Nature is that No one gains the knowledge of a Good book by simply putting their hand on it, they must open it and have temperance and fortitude to reopen it frequently. You have had the knowledge imparted, that a day can be divided well. We hope you join us, or just stop in, around 6:30 P.M. on Mondays and Wednesdays to take advantage of your rights and endeavor to build your foundation swiftly. Suitable assistance will be provided if you seek it.

My Brothers in Unity Lodge;

I congratulate the Officers for three fine degrees with the passing of Brother Ben Terry to the Degree of Fellow Craft, and Brothers Armondo Leza and William Fiskewold as our youngest Entered Apprentices.

We, as Brothers of Unity Lodge, are NOT showing these new Brothers the reason for their joining the fraternity. Ask yourself these questions:

1. When was the last time you sat in lodge?
2. When was the last time you volunteered your services to help out with a lodge function?
3. When was the last time you sat in on a degree?

It is the present officers and past masters who are doing all the work for the lodge, we need YOU to attend Lodge and be a side liner, show these new Brothers the reason why you became a Master Mason. They "came of their own free will and accord" and decided to join our Lodge and become a Master Mason.

We have 300+ members on our rolls. Some are not in the best health or are caring for a family members and some no longer live in the area. I can understand that, but what have the rest of you been doing for the lodge? Where are you? We need you NOW! Come join us and renew your friendships in the Lodge.
